Dear Andreas,

On behalf of the members of ALPL, I am writing to extend our heartfelt support and solidarity to you and all the Austrian Airline pilots during this challenging time as you embark on strike action following the breakdown of negotiations at Austrian Airlines.

As fellow airline workers, we understand the importance of standing united in the face of adversity to uphold our rights and fight for fair treatment in the workplace.

It is disheartening to hear that your negotiations with the airline management have reached an impasse, necessitating the need for industrial action.

However, we commend your courage and determination in taking a stand to address the issues that matter most to your ACA members, including fair wages, improved working conditions, and respect for your contributions to the health and success of Austrian Airlines.

In times of struggle, it is crucial for us as association members to come together in solidarity and support each other's efforts to advocate for our rights collectively.

Your fight is not just your own but is a shared struggle that resonates with airline workers everywhere who understand the challenges and obstacles faced in our industry.

Please know that you are not alone in this battle. We stand shoulder to shoulder with ACA, offering words of encouragement, strength, and steadfast support as you navigate through this period of strike action.

We believe in the power of unity and collective action to bring about positive change for all airline workers. Stay strong, stay united, and know that your brothers and sisters at ALPL stand ready to support you in any way we can during this crucial time.

In solidarity and with warm regards,

Captain Darrell Myers
Executive President
